WSFS SPONSORS LEWES SUMMER MUSIC PROGRAM

WILMINGTON, Del.— WSFS Financial Corporation (NASDAQ/GS: WSFS), the parent company of WSFS Bank, announced their second year partnership with the City of Lewes to host the WSFS Bank Summer Music Series in Lewes, Delaware. Over 8,000 people are expected to attend the 16 planned, free concerts at Stango Park this summer.

The music series, which begins on June 2 and continues throughout August, has been made possible by WSFS Bank, the City of Lewes Parks & Recreation Commission and the Delaware Division of the Arts. The series will highlight all different types of music from concert bands to rock bands and will feature both small groups and large ensembles.

“WSFS Bank is committed to supporting the residents of Sussex County and the communities that we serve,” said Janis Julian, Senior Vice President of Community Relations for WSFS Bank. “This type of event reinforces our strong relationship with the City of Lewes and the concert series is a wonderful avenue to present this collection of versatile and entertaining musical performances.”

“We are pleased to again partner with WSFS Bank on the concert series,” said Jon Woodyard, Concert Coordinator. “The City of Lewes is pleased with the continued collaboration and the enthusiasm WSFS Bank shows to the Sussex County community.”

WSFS has banking offices in Lewes, Rehoboth Beach, Long Neck, Millsboro and Selbyville. On June 8, WSFS will be opening a banking office in Ocean View, providing a total of six banking offices serving Sussex County.
