

WSFS Executive Elected as Trustee to Delaware Art Museum

WILMINGTON, Del., May 26, 2010 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- WSFS Financial Corporation (Nasdaq:WSFS), the parent company of WSFS Bank, today announced that Richard J. Immesberger, Executive Vice President of the WSFS Trust & Wealth Management Division was elected to the Board of Trustees of the Delaware Art Museum during their Annual Meeting on May 12, 2010. He will serve a three year term.

The Delaware Art Museum, located in Wilmington, Delaware, was founded in 1912 and is best known for its large collection of British Pre-Raphaelite art, as well as other works from well known artists.

Trustees volunteer their time to guide the institution by monitoring the Museum's finances and ensuring that the programs and policies are sustainable and consistent with the mission. Immesberger was serving a partial term on the Board of Trustees beginning in October 2009 to fill a vacant spot.
