

John Ventura Joins WSFS Wealth® as Senior Vice President, Senior Private Banking Relationship Manager

August 31, 2021

WILMINGTON, Del., Aug. 31, 2021 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- John Ventura has joined WSFS Wealth Private Banking, a division of WSFS Bank, the primary subsidiary of WSFS Financial Corporation (Nasdaq: WSFS), as Senior Vice President, Senior Private Banking Relationship Manager. Reporting to Steven G. Kochie, Senior Vice President, Director of Wealth Private Banking, Ventura's primary focus will be developing and supporting client relationships, providing financial strategies and solutions, assisting clients with loans, lines of credit and other banking products and services.

"We are thrilled to have someone with John's robust private banking and wealth management experience join the team," said Kochie. "John brings with him the knowledge and skillset needed to serve as a trusted partner to our clients and provide them with solid financial solutions and strategies to address their unique financial goals."

Ventura has more than 15 years of experience in private banking, including assisting clients with financial planning, portfolio management, asset allocation, trust administration and estate settlement, hedge funds, private equity and real estate, risk mitigation, and complex tax and legal issues. He joins WSFS from PNC Wealth Management, where he most recently served as Vice President, Senior Relationship Strategist.

"I'm excited to join such a talented and collaborative team at WSFS," said Ventura. "I look forward to working with the team to drive results and assist clients with their ever-changing needs."

Ventura is a resident of Philadelphia and received his B.S. in finance from Pennsylvania State University. He holds his Series 6, Series 63, Series 65 and Series 7 licenses.

WSFS Wealth provides holistic financial planning solutions including investment, tax, legal, business and estate planning.
